

New Fish Radio Program

FishChannel Moderator David Lass is a recurring guest on the Blue Zoo fish radio program.

Posted: May 2, 2008, 12:00 p.m. EST

Reece's Blue Zoo fish radio program gives aquarists a chance to have a mainstream voice in the aquatic industry -- something missing until now in the fishkeeping hobby. Listeners can interact with leading authorities in the fishkeeping hobby: authors, guest speakers, executives from aquatic companies and enthusiasts alike. The Blue Zoo fish radio program offers insight into the behind the scenes activities that will shape the future of the fishkeeping hobby that have been off limits until now. FishChannel Forum Moderator David Lass is a recurring guest on the program.

Reece's Blue Zoo airs live every Monday evening from 10 to 11 p.m. EST on <http://www.sportstalkcleveland.com/network/>.
